Welcome to Coronation 1992 THE GAMES PEOPLE PLAY...

A Night On The Monopoly Board. As we will soon end our sixteenth year in the court system and about to start our seventeenth, it gives me great pleasure to welcome all visiting Monarchs and out of town guests, and all Edmontonians here tonight. I would like to take this time to thank all of you for making this evening possible. A lot of people have put in their free time and energy in making tonight come together, and without these people we would not be here with friends having fun. To Karen, my wife, who has put up with a lot of mood swings, thank you for being there when I needed you. To Mandy, In a few hours you'll be able to relax, you've been a great friend and I've gotten to know you a little more than expected. We'll have to finish that project we started <Evil Grin>. To Brian, thank you for all the support, you kept things in focus for me, now you can buy me that triple you promised. To Twiggy, what can I say, you've been (asleep most of the time) great. Thanks for all the work you've put into the shows and this coronation <Big Kiss>. To Marsha, girl you know how to work and get your hands dirty, thank you for all the help and planning of functions this year. You're one in a million. To Northern Chaps, members and executive, thank you for all the support <Grope> help <Grope> and friendship <Big Grope>. Tom, Jim, and Devan, I tip my hat to you and all members of Chaps, it's been one hell of a year. To Mike and the staff at Boots, To John and the staff at Flashback, thank you for your support and friendship. To All court members and executive, thank you for all your hard work, time and talent. It's been a pleasure working with you all.

LET THE GAMES BEGIN!!!

Michael Kurylo President N.R.S.S.N.A.

CITIZEN OF THE YEAR JOHN DE SMIT MEMORIAL AWARD

The Citizen of the Year Award is presented annually to a person who has contributed freely to making the Gay Community and the City of Edmonton a better place to live. This contribution, although not necessarily publicly acclaimed, is one that allows each of us to move through life more freely and with more companionship amoung our neighbours and acqaintances.
John De Smit was a man who was at ease with life and socialized freely with everyone around him. He loved having a good time with everyone and demanded nothing from anyone. He loved showing the unaware that gay people are worth knowing and caring about. He was cared about by many people from all walks of life and his untimely death was a tragic lose to all who knew him.
Past award recipients were:

John Reid:	1977-78	Michael Ritter:	1984-85
Jim Heibert:	1978-79	Darrin Hagen:	1985-86
Ron Byers:	1979-80	Kyle Edgar:	1986-87
Pat Fortier:	1980-81	Kevin Hendricks:	1987-88
Ron and Ross:	1981-82	Sam Evanochko:	1988-89
Michael Phair:	1982-83	Mother Jean Lawson:	1989-90
John M. Kerr:	1983-84	Bev Crest:	1990-91

To Be Announced: 1991-92

John M. Kerr Memorial Scholarship Fund

The John M. Kerr Memorial Scholarship is awarded annually to Gay or Lesbian student(s) who reside in Alberta and may be applied to any accredited post-secondary program within the province. The fund was initiated and is administered by Empress VII Mary Mess/Michael McKinnon. Fund-raising shows are organized and hosted by Empress XI Beverly Crest.

Ross Armstrong Memorial Trust Fund

Under the sponsorship of the AIDS Network of Edmonton Society the Ross Armstrong Memorial Trust Fund was established in 1986 to assist persons affected by HIV infection or AIDS related diseases in Edmonton. Ross Armstrong the first person in Edmonton to be diagnosed with AIDS and he worked to establish The AIDS Network and to educate Gay men about this disease affecting our comunity. Applications for assistance can be forwarded to the AIDS Network c/o Executive Director. Between 1989 and the present there has been $22060.00 in awards presented. A receipt from the Network is available for all donations made.

Stars Of Hope Fund

The 'stars' fund was begun in 1990 by Empress XIV Leah Way, and Empress XV Twiggy to raise moneies each year to be presented at Edmontons Coronation Balls to Persons Living with A.I.D.S. and A.I.D.S. related services. Persons who donate $5.00 or more to the fund receive a commemorative pin as a reminder that above all we have hope for a brighter, safer future within our gay and lesbian community.

Calgary, Alberta, Canada

Decade Empress VII Mrs. K.

As the years roll by, a program message seems to get easier and easier to write. I'm not sure whether it's because I've written so many of them, or if I hold my opinions more strongly, or if I'm just more used to speaking my mind. As Chatty has said (more than once): "If you want to know what Mrs. K. thinks, just ask her!" The interesting thing is that now I have much more to say than when I was Empress. As Lindy quite elequently put it: "Take the word processor AWAY from her!" Many things have happened since 1983, not only to me, but to the world we live in.

One of the things that has remained stable during that time is the mission of the Court System: To nurture and spread friendship and build positive relationships between groups of people living in different cities. The enduring livelihood of this system attests to its success at this mission.

The ongoing success of the court, however, will depend on one thing: Checking with people to see how you're doing. In the past year alone, we have seen Gay Supportive Provincial Governments elected by the majority of the Canadian Populace, the continuing and unabated progress of HIV disease, the Earth Summit, and, depending on who you listen to, an increasingly bleak or increasingly promising economic forecast. The Court has been a leader of action within the gay community, but in this rapidly changing world it can continue at the forefront in only one way. To the next Empress of Edmonton, I give this simple job: Talk to People!

Talk to the members of your court, and to the members of other organizations. Talk to people who aren't members of any organization. Ask them what they would like to see happen in our community, and how they would like to see our community affect the world. If the court can give people what they're asking for, it will continue into the next millennium as a leader of people. If it continues as it has, providing the vision of the few with the expectation that it will satisfy the community, it's my fear that the Court and the system will suffer an unfairly premature demise.

To this year's Empress, Mandy (and to all reigning Monarchs) I have this to say: Don't let being Empress be the best thing you've ever done. I am proud and thankful that the people of Edmonton's gay community had enough faith in me to let me represent them for a year. I learned many, many things in the year I was Empress: How to organize things, how to make a good impression when meeting people (and, I should admit, how to make a bad impression), and how to get other people to do part of my work for me and feel good about doing it. These are skills that I use daily in my workplace and community. Don't let people think that the value of being Empress is limited solely to costume and performance skills.

Reigning as Empress is an honour and a priviledge. It's truly worth aspiring to. The crying shame that I see happen regularly, even frequently, is that people never do anything noteworthy again. Being Empress becomes the highlight of their lives, and their sole claim to fame. I ask: Why not try something new ? I see so many positive examples of Emperors and Empresses who go on to bigger and better things. Some are business owners, others compete in sports, some have gone on to further their educations, and some have taken dramatic new directions in their own field. What ever you do, don't stagnate, or believe that being Empress is the top of the line. Use it as a starting gate, and come out of it at a run: you'll likely lead the pack thereafter. I hope your life will be as dynamic as the one I've been lucky enough to live.

I guess what it comes down to is not taking yourself seriously. It's been said that Angels can fly because they make light of themselves. For me, there are no truer words. The time I spend with my friends is always a time of laughter. They bring me joy even when they are bathing me in the acid of their tongues. Those friends who have passed on are the ones I celebrate the most. They had no time for sorrow while they were with me. I believe that they wouldn't want me to waste time in sorrow for their passing. I remember them with happiness, and live vicariously for their sakes.

The people that I surround myself with tonight are the friends I love the best. Together we face an ever changing world, and dare it to vanquish us. So long as we have one another, we'll come out on top. And so, as is traditional with these messages, I have a few special notes to some special people:

To Darren: How happily time has passed since it originally rained men. To see you growing into your potential and still remain the same old you, is a privilege: I'm surprised/pleased.

To Joe: I so rarely get to say nice things about you where people can hear, so let me say it now: more than 15 years of friendship, and I still haven't gotten enough. Give me as much as you have, and it'll make me as happy as the past has, and more.

To Sam: You give me smiles every day. I can hardly wait to see you again.

To Ross: I've never felt as close to anyone else. See also Joe's message.

To Ken: You've given me years filled with nothing but laughter, and an occasional objective voice.You make friendship easy.

And lastly, to everyone everywhere: Ross and I want to publicly apologize for killing our pretty sister.

Enjoy your evening, and the rest of the weekend. Come meet me and talk to me. I like to meet new people. If you're particularly handsome, date me. It could be the start of a dynamic new part of my own life.

Look ahead to the future with the wisdom from the past

H.M.I.S.H. Imperial Crown Northern Lights Prince XVI Darrell

Good Evening Ladies and Gentlemen!

Welcome to Coronation 1992. Tonight is a Celebration of Unity, Strength, and Love. I sincerely hope you enjoy your weekend in our beautiful city of Edmonton. So to my friends, new and old, from near and far, I would like to say thank you for an incredible year.

Regina, Truly the Queen City of the Plains. Anita--STOP IT! especially when I'm asleep. Wilma--I do love you, but next time you get hungry on the Trans Canada I suggest you stop the car. Dale--see you in September!

Saskatoon, Another Gem in Saskatchewan's Crown. Thank You.

Calgary, Yes you are the city of Western Hospitality (In more ways than one). Jamie--I love you!, You make Calgary so special for me don't ever change, -Garth. Ward--Prince 16 of Edmonton, the boy who never sleeps.

Vancouver, Paradise on the Pacific.

Toronto, THE Coronation of my year. A person could wear themselves out in your town. Scarlett--Love your video, is there a sequel?

San Fernando, Dixon--you are such a sweetheart, Don't forget, that busboy in Calgary IS shorter than you.

Spokane, What can I say, You are the "Classic" American City in hospitality and friendship. Cher--I'm so glad to have met you. Eunice--Wish you were here.

Edmonton, My home town. It may be cold here in Winter, but with all my friends warm hearts, no one can ask for a better place to live. Thank You!

Brian, You were always supportive.

Mary Mess, Always the Empress! Mandy has your "Regina towel photos".

Ginger Snapped, Since I met Minnie Mess so long ago, I've seen you grow into the Princess of today. All my love..Shayla

Mandy Kamp. Mark, you are my best friend. No matter where we went, we always managed to sneak off together to hit the malls and be evil together spending money! Not even Tiffany's in Toronto was safe from us. All my love now and forever...

I remain,
H.M.I.S.H. I.C.P. XVI
Darrell

H.M.I.S.M. THE GOLDEN HEART EMPEROR, EMPEROR XVI, BRIAN

Good Evening Friends and Honoured Guests. Welcome to Coronation 1992, The Games People Play ... A Night on the Monopoly Board.

As my reign draws to a close I reflect over the past years of my involvement with the court (ISCWR). During these years Emperors and Empresses have come and gone. Some good and some ... . There have been many problems over this period; however, we have survived due to the strong commitment and hard work of our dedicated members. We are survivors and we will continue to survive for years to come regardless of whom the Emperor or Empress happens to be. We must offer our full support to whomever the new Emperor and Empress will be this evening.

I have met many creative and talented, excellent female impersonators, as well as, gays from a variety of walks of life and at different levels on the financial scale, all of whom I have talked with and had good times. Thanks Edmonton for this marvelous opportunity.

Although it is hard to thank everyone I've met, there are a few who stand out.

JIM AND GRACIE (Emperor and Empress XIII of Edmonton). You got me involved during your reign. Thanks! I have had a wonderful time.

LEAH WAY (Empress XIV of Edmonton). Thanks for insisting that I remain at the very beginning. All your guidance, effort and work are very much appreciated.

BEVERLY CREST (Empress XI of Edmonton). Your words of wisdom have meant a great deal to me.

MOTHER JEAN (Empress Regent X of Edmonton). Your words of encouragement helped carry me through. Remember! Nice girls don't bare their boobs in a bar even if they are seventy some years of age and a little tipsy.

PIERRE (Emperor XV of Edmonton) and Cassandra. I know things have been difficult but thanks for quitely supporting in many ways.

THE CANDIDATES. Marsha, Mary Mess, Weena, Mr. Vera, Rhoda B. You are all great people and each one deserves to reign. I wish you all good luck.

THE CLUBS OF EDMONTON (Flashback, Boots & Saddle, The Roost) John, Conrad, Jim, Pat, Dow. I take my hat off to all of you and your staff for allowing us to use your premises when required.

CALGARY, SASKATOON, REGINA. You were the only courts I had a chance to visit. Miss K, Ghedo, Missie La Moo, Doug, Coco, Natalie, Kris, Gail, Rona, Wilma, Anita, just to mention a few. Your cities, people, and parties are great.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE 16th HOUSE. Mike, Don, Karen, John Reid, Mr. Vera, Twiggy, Leah Way, and Mary Mess. All I can say is a big thank you for all your hard work and undivided support during the year.

EDMONTON. You're the greatest. Krysty, Tara, Asia, Eva, Deedee, Horst, Ross, Tom, Mikee, Weena, Ian, Ashley, Keith, Donna, Natasha, Dr. Ruth, Diane, Leonard, Marsha, Marry Mess, David H., Robert, Gib, Gretchen, and many many others. Thanks Edmonton for everything and making a wonderful year for me.

GINGER SNAPPED (Imperial Crown Princess XVI)

DARRYL (Imperial Crown Prince XVI)

Ginger, thanks for giving it all. Very, very much appreciated. Darryl, I don't know how you could live in a house with all those queens and still be yourself.

MANDY KAMP (My Empress XVI of Edmonton). You gave 100%. You are a tremendous person. You proved you could do it in many ways. Thanks for carrying the bulk of the load. Thanks for a great year. All my love.

JACKIE TWO STEP (Princess Consort). Thanks for standing beside me. Thanks for your guidance and endurance. I appreciate everything you did or attempted to do for me. I love you.

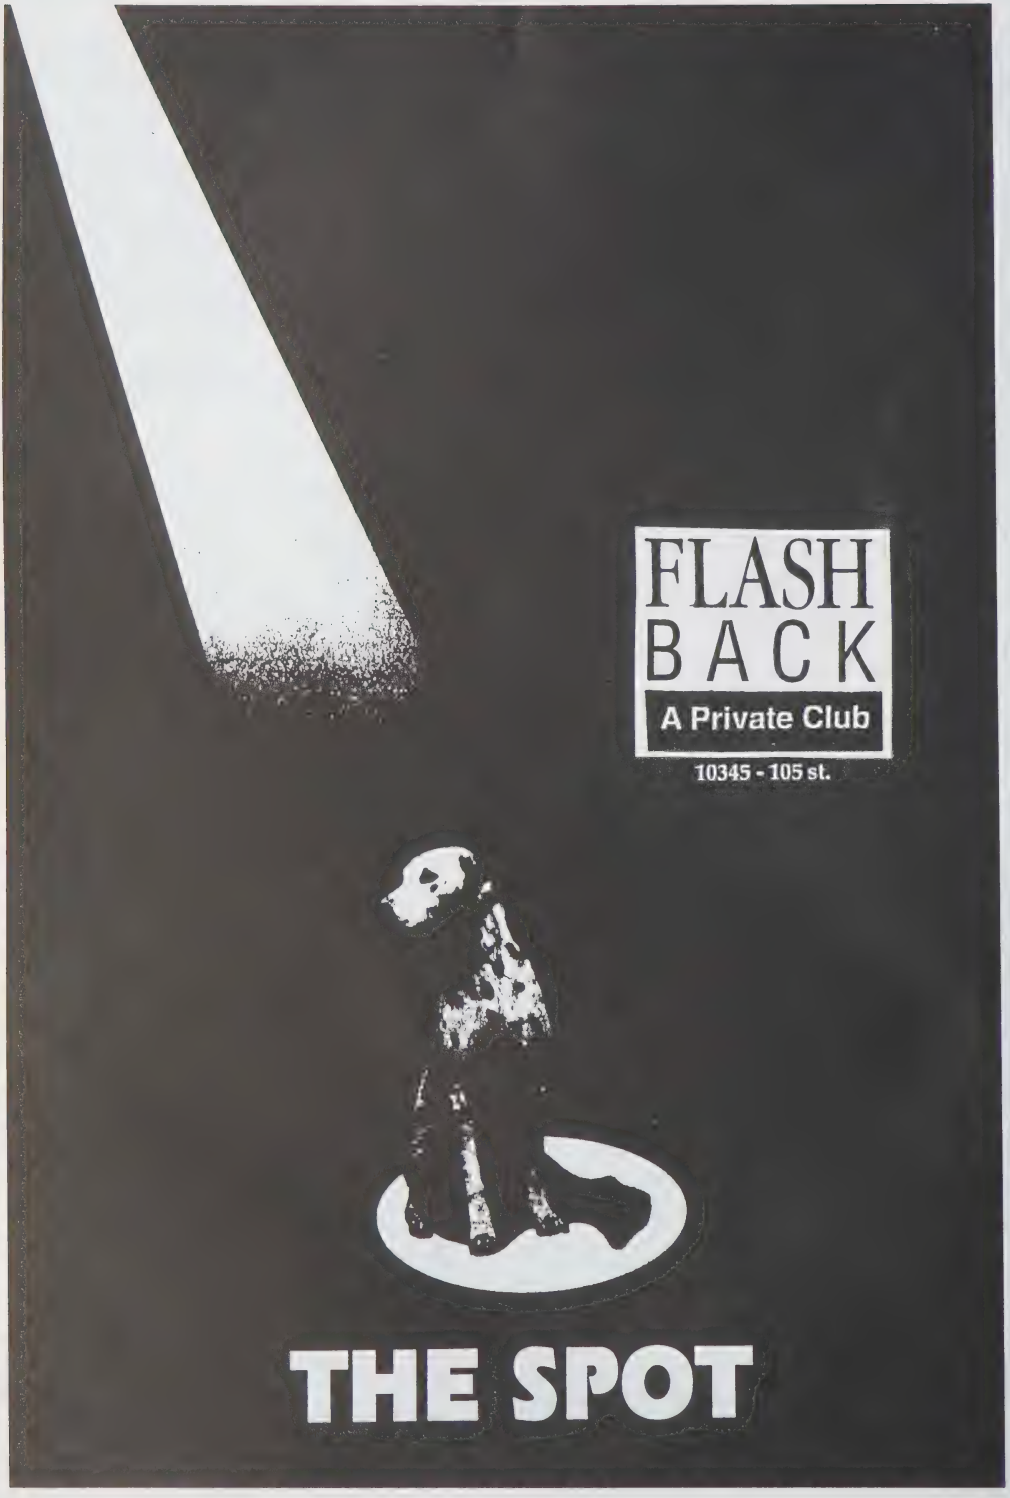

I REMAIN

H.M.I.S.H. IMPERIAL CROWN NORTH STAR PRINCESS XVI GINGER SNAPPED

Dear Mom,

Well, it's been about a year since I last wrote, so I figured it was about time. Here are a few things you should know before we go on. 1st: remember how, when as a little girl, oops, boy, I used to wear your high heels? Well, now I've progressed to a 4" pump. Patent leather NO DOUBT!!!

2nd: about those times you dressed me for halloween, well forget K-Martma, it's Goodwill where it's at! What else has happened? Well, for the past year I have been Imperial Crown Princess here in Edmonton, one of the best cities ever to be in, in Canada. They call us the Wildest Party Children Of Canada, and boy they aren't kidding! I'm sure I've consumed more beer than a small German army. One minor drawback is the weather. I've never seen so many blizzards, all in one centralized location, but thanks to my friend Sassy in Seattle, I learned how to weather the storm. Another minor drawback to being Princess is trying to remember the names of all the Queens you meet, for example, there is Missie, Mrs. K, Anita, Ivanaugh, Imelda, Justine, Ty Morgan, Flo, Zsa Zsa, Ashley, Bev, Coco, Ora, Leo, Flora, Myria, Shea, Shanna, Tina Louise, Ryan, Dusty, Jackie, Eva, Weena,... God this list could go on forever, but I'm sure you understand. You thought your bridge club was a big gossip session, well just get together with these girls for a few hours, and you'll need another blue rinse!

You always told me, don't settle down before you get the chance to travel, well have I got stories for you! I've been to Calgary (I now own shares in Greyhound), Spokane, Saskatoon, Regina and Toronto. Of course I never saw much more than the hotel lobby and a washroom or two, but hey, I travelled. They were indeed Kodak moments!

Spokane: Cher (The Empress) and I decided that Revlon needed new models, so we took the plunge in the Ridpath Hotel. Spent numerous laughing and beading a dress for Christie (Old Empress, well not old, but past), with help from lover Robert and "general great guy" Michael (our chauffeur).

Regina: Shared in the joy at Pagentry of Coronation I, and the Crowning of Emperor and Empress I, Wilma & Dale. Traded Mazola stories with Anita Lay, but couldn't figure out how she was able to get both hand & foot prints on the ceiling.

Toronto: Was curropted by my friend Scarlett, as she led me down Younge Street in full drag, just so we could wave at cute boys! But I'm not complainging. Saw a real live bugle food creature, quite pretty, and very much a party girl, we'll call her Ryan.

Calgary: Ordered mushrooms on my pizza - what a mistake! My poor roommate Mary saw bugs (I think they were in her BRA personally!) Friends Jamie and Ward continued to corrupt me, but hey! Jamie's first a woman and continues to W4B!

One of the great things this year has been a exclusive membership club, called The Canadian Princess Corporation, Members include Natasha, Zola, Eartha, Scarlett and Pearl. Meetings are very irregular, but do we ever take care of business? All the girls are great, but seem to be stuck in the 60's, always wanting to stage a sit-in somewhere or another. I'll keep you posted, but look for us to join the even more elite Empress Club in the future!

One of the best things that has happened to me this year, is having some of the greatest friends in the world in Edmonton. Gertie, Marsha, Bunny, Dorky, Neon, Keith, Mikie, Barry (Coco), Gloria, Kevin, Andy, Jim (Daddy in Leather!), Gretchen and more than I can't even think of! There are a few that perhaps you should know in deetail.

Mr. Vera: Hell of a guy, proud to be anywhere there is a party! I'd wear a G-String to bed with him anyday!

Curtis: Ever the Fountain Of Youth. You'd be proud to have him in your home. Of course, don't give him the house keep on you may awaken to a stranger or two.

Twiggy: What an artist! She's so talented, and can even wear tap shoes! She's to blame for this mess, but she sure knows how to shw a girl how to create a scandel. This is her life and boy, we do give a damn!!

Darrell: my Imperial Crown Prince, what can I say ma? Well, lets just say I am proud to be on his arm and cherish the friendship we shared over the past five years. I hope he'll be happy in what lies ahead and is better at phoning than I am. Love you babe!

Brian: true to his name, he has a heart of gold. A man that lives up to a promise, is always willing to lend a helping hand, and never faltered in his beliefs. Congratulations are in order for him. Tonight is his night too and we'll all be there to salute him.

Mandy: My Empress and Friend. We've been through a lot in the past five years and this is not the end. If ever I needed a big brother, mom, Mark is it. He believed in me, gave me the strength and ability to go on and do the job I wanted to, but more important; he never interfered. What he has done more for this city as Empress than can be expressed in words. I, and the City of Edmonton, are so proud to call him Empress and Friend. Meet us at the buffet ma, and we'll all graze with full Royalty.

Well mom, my fingers are cramping, so I'll sign off. Take care until next time we talk.

WITH LOVE,

H.M.I.S.H. IMPERIAL CROWN PRINCESS XVI

Ginger

H.M.I.S.M. EMPRESS XVI MANDY KAMP

Good evening fellow Monarchs, honored guests, ladies and gentlemen, friends, lovers, tricks, people I have met at buffets, bars, bathhouses, bathrooms, recreational vehicles, public parks, shopping malls and general scum... Have I missed anyone? Welcome to the apex (I love that word) of the international "Slap The Princess / Feed The Empress Year", and of course THE BIG GAY BALL DEAR!

Tonight, I'll watch (or at least try to focus), wonder "who the hell is that", "how could she think of wearing that - doesn't she own a mirror", "why is this number so damn long", and "where did my waistline go?", and reflect upon a year that was filled with a lot of fun, excitement, travel, expense (thank you visa), ups and downs, perks and quirks, and a couple of "God why am I doing this?".

Now then, here comes the best game of all! The part you've all been waiting for, when you wonder "DID I GET MENTIONED?!" And my answer to you all is NOT. Just kidding!

For those I did not mention, please accept my deepest apology. Leaving you out was not intentional (unless of course, you've pissed me off!); it is so difficult to remember everyone you've met over nine years.

HERE WE GO!

First and foremost, the City of Spokane, Washington. It has been a great honor for me to represent you as Empress XX 1/2. Eunice, I'll miss you tonight. Larry, thanks for treating me so well. Robert, best of luck! Christy Ste. Clair, girl, you are such a hoot and beautiful too! Connie, YES this is your fault! Cher, my half Empress and my friend. Your support and friendship means the world to me. I love you!

Portland. Champagne, Mr Bill, Peacock, Cicely, Patti O'Dora, Tia- I have suffered big time from the fun we've had. Thank you.

Seattle. Marcy Kraft, Stacy Prince, Kaluha Ice - you girls are evil, evil, evil! Gorgeous, but evil!
And Marcy, we shall always remain "the Empresses that go against the grain".

New York City. Miss Ciccone - thank you for being my biggest influence.

Toronto. Andrew and Ryan, I miss the fun we've had on the circuit. Scarlett, what did my black towels ever do to you? Leave them alone! Daddy Paul & Sophie, yours is coming up soon. Enjoy! Dawn Valley, you've always made me feel so special.

Victoria, B.C. Taylor, we miss you so much - MOVE BACK!

Vancouver, B.C. Imelda and Bennett, it's about time! Let's make it a party, ok? Myria Le Noir, nothing could EVER compare. From the heart, thank you. Gil, you ARE the best. Willie, knowing you said you would for me, means the world. Marilyn, tuck in your flaps girl and pull up your gear. I'd fly anywhere with you. David, ya BIG HUNK. Diz, oh please - don't look so shocked. Just like old times. Steve, I can't stop thinking of you. I love you - STILL. Joanie, she who taught me how to party properly! Pearl, my WOOKIE WOMAN! A friendship which knows no bounds and is by far most crazy!

Saskatoon. Missie and Doug, you did great with a tough job, twice. Miss K, 100% class - bravo! Coco and Shawn, best of luck in the year ahead. Michelle, you are too good to me, Thank you. Numbers, thanks for having me. Natasha, leave my best friend alone (hee hee hee).

Regina. Bruce and Daniel, honest friendship, I love you both. Anita, one day! Remember the foot code. Gerard, so handsome, I could die. Miss B and Craig, thanks for the fun. Dale, I really do like you, but put some clothes on! Wilma, I think of you often and feel so lucky to be your friend, Love Mandy. See you in September.

Calgary. My PARTY place. Syreeta, I'll be there for you as promised. Little John, "I'm a pig, I'm a pig, I'm a pig!!" Flo, I'll be in touch. Doug, congrats baby. Don Bastian, thanks for saying yes. Bryan & Barbie, a toast to new friendships. Eartha, the QUAKE was felt here. Jamie, do you have to be so good? Justine, did you ever know that you're my what - HERO, girl! Tiffany, our fourty-year friendship. Luv ya. Ty, being large together was most fun wasn't it? Black is not only dark, but slimming too! Ward, I'd tweek your Slimer horn anytime - PULSEY, PULSEY! Jamie, plain and simple, I love you my friend (more than food).

Now the hardest part... my Hometown and my Reason for being,Edmonton. This is going to be difficult. My Mother and Father, Brother and Sister-in-law. Thank you for your undying love and support in what I've chosen to do in my life. To the fun and crazy people I work with at the Jube - thanks for coping! TM-Ditto! Edmund, baby, you give me far too much "CREDIT" I love you. Kerry, Kelly and Susan, many thanks to my three biggest fans. Susanne, my new and strong friendship. You are very special to me. Sandra, yo bitch! When do we do New York? Bev, you did deserve it. Fluffy, you are BETTER than food. Bunny, you always stink so good. Marcel, it was the right choice. Rob, oooooh, you're so tall! Chatty, you have always treated me with respect and kindness. I can't thank you enough! Mrs. K., Lindee Star and Joe Boy, thank you for Calgary - I listened! Boots - my sponsor bar. A million and one thanks for all your hard work, never ending support and most of all, for believing in us and taking a chance! Flashback - as always, you were there for us and helped make us successful and prominent in our endeavors. My deepest gratitude! Nancy - EAT ME (hee hee hee). Curtis, my Baby, Mr. Gay V, we really are the crabby sisters aren't we? Andy, isn't it fun being a boy? Jim, I want some of those "Let's Hit The Gym"! Leah, my sister, my friend, thank you for making me realize we are human; not perfect, love Mandy. Graham, you are too good to be true! You must be faking it (hee hee). Jackie, Kristy, Eva, Asia, Horst, Tara, Donna DoYaWanna and Dr. Ruthie - we couldn't have the shows or as much fun without you girls, thank you very, very much.

Neon, truly built for the BLUES and BOOBS! Wayne, welcome home! David Hennesy, you brought out in me something I never knew I had, thank you with love, Mandy. Gertrude, you certainly are! Kim, my drag mom. La Poop, our friendship is very unique and special. Nothing could ever change that. Love ya ma!

To the Candidates, Good luck and Remember, what Mrs. K said!! Have fun with it.

My Board of Directors, what can I say. The 16th House would have died without you! To Mr. President - Mr. Mike Kurylo, Karen - my secretary, and all the others. You knew how to move in and kick butt! My deepest gratitude and heartfelt thanks to each of you, love Mark.

Northern Chaps - Tom, Devan, Jim, Gord, David, Bart, and the rest of the troop, I am so honored and proud you allowed me a chance to work with you. I will always be your "WARM LEATHERETTE"!

Trevor, am I still penciled in?

Mr. Vera, I will always watch with love, amazement and respect.

Gloria, thank you for being my coach.

Marshall, a true friend I have had the priviledge to know.

Twiggy, my GOD, where do I start! You are the best thing since sliced bread! I could never begin to thank you enough for EVERYTHING you've done. I love you so very much.

Imperial Crown Prince Darrell. Thank you for stepping down with me tonight! No major North American shopping mall will be safe from us!I always loved walking into a room with you - what a team. (Hi Jeff, when's dinner?)

Imperial Crown Princess Ginger. Well Miss Snapped, we did it! Ginger has come a long way, and I know will go further yet! Thanks for putting up with me all year. You did everthing that I asked and more (Tres Bien, Girl). It's no wonder your hair is white. See you in the buffet line!

My Emperor, Brian. I missed you in our first six months, but I understand and accepted what I had to. The times we spent together, I have been treated so Royally. You are truly a beautiful man "Sixteen", and I will always be proud to walk on your arm as your Empress. Here's to you hon and the wonderful year we've spent together! With love and admiration, and a heart full of thanks - Mandy.

Sit back, relax and enjoy US as much as we enjoy You!!!

Once, before the dawn of time in a land not yet named, there was a bountiful garden. In the garden was a seed. The seed knew it would grow into a fairy, but lay asleep for many years, waiting for a signal to begin its life anew. It waited, listening to the music of the cosmos. Suddenly, the seed heard what it had been waiting for:

A Fantastically Big Noise!!

After the Big Noise, the Fairy opened her eyes. She saw the beauty of the world around her. She was happy, at first, but grew increasingly sad as she realized she could not see her own face.

One day, as she wandered through the forest, the Fairy came upon a mysterious changeling. The Changeling told her she could learn to see her face by casting away the unhappiness inside her, and singing of her rebirth.

The Fairy left the Changeling with her joy renewed. Soon, she ran into two unusual people: though the two had different hearts, they shared the same face. They spoke to the Fairy of their shared memories of one another.

As the twins finished, the Fairy's Half-Brother appeared. Knowing the magic from before Time, he tried to free the Fairy's power to see her face. Instead, he freed only the colour of her thoughts, which danced upon the horizon.

Filled with dismay, the Fairy fled across the sky. Seeking to console her, her friends followed. As she fled the Fairy realized she was leading her friends closer and closer to heaven.

As her flight ended, the Fairy turned to those she loved. They gazed fondly back at her, and she realized that she could suddenly see her own face. For it was reflected back to her in the loving eyes of her friends. And so the Fairy came to know: You can never see Yourself as You truly are, except through the eyes of those who love You.
